QVC £

One of the brands to look out for here is K by Kelly Hoppen, exclusively designed for QVC and full of Kelly's signature clean lines and neutral palette – we think the lighting collection is particularly striking. BundleBerry by Amanda Holden is also worth checking out for its super-glam glassware.

ROCKETT
ST GEORGE ££

Filled with wonders from all over the world to inject personality into your home, Rockett St George is anything but bland. Fab typography mirrors that look like you found them in an amazing New York thrift store; Dali-reminiscent console tables that literally drip with character; and artwork and objets that may shock – but definitely in a good way. And don't forget to check out the new collection for pets.

ROSE & GREY ££

If you're a fan of Ferm Living and modern Scandi artwork, you'll love this beautiful collection of furniture, ceramics, lighting and soft furnishings. We're particularly struck by the simplicity of the side tables – a bargain at under £200 – and the hand-painted vases are perfect for adding subtle pattern to your shelf styling.
